The Audience

Participants will hear from Ebenezer Scrooge's ladies about Victorian times, society, economic issues, women's rights and romance. What about Scrooge and Dickens? Were either socially conscious, responsible, caring, a good employer or even environmentally savvy? Did they treat these ladies well or not? Find out their stories during this lively exchange between the women that "knew them ever so well."

Suitable for school & community groups the program addresses social, political and economic issues of the day and guarantees a fun way to learn about life in the 19th century!

Available evenings & weekends

Cost: $300 for 60 minute program plus travel
