

OHA HOSTS THE CENTRAL NEW YORK HISTORY DAY AT OCC

“REVOLUTION, REACTION, REFORM” is the theme of the 2012 NATIONAL HISTORY Day competition in which students from all over the country compete in projects in the categories of Exhibit, Website, Documentary, Papers, and Performance.

The Onondaga Historical Association will host the Central New York Regional Competition on Saturday, March 10th from 9:00-4:00 at Onondaga Community Collage, which will serve as the event’s major sponsor. Competition is open to students in grades 6th- 12th in Cortland, Madison, Oneida, Onondaga, and Oswego counties. The first and second place winners of the regional contest will continue on to the state competition in Washington. Registration deadline is February 27th for more information you may check the National History Day Website <http://ny.nhd.org/Theme.htm> or Coordinator, Scott Peal at the Onondaga Historical Association (315) 428- 1864 x 317.